

the "System Analysis" of Evil / Mary / Obedience / Satan

All of which follows a dream in which I choose to restart piano lessons, with an oddly-beautiful teacher with whom I begin to make love, though in some way, Pat will discover us, and be hurt + angry....

I grew up — till the CW started in 1946, when I was 15 — with a certain "given" set of answers (given by Authority — with the notion of total withdrawal of Mother — "love" or even mother-recognition / awareness)

Under answers
To the questions: What do I want ... to do, achieve?
What are my capabilities?

and an implicit set of ^{prohibitive} answers — which I did not want to admit I knew — to the questions: Why was I born?

Who am I working for?

Why am I doing what I am doing?

What are — and are not — my "wishes" alternatives?

Do my mother + father love "me" —

care for my independent desires + concerns as distinct from their own, from their own?

a child's

Awareness of this question is as subconscious as a workingman's (or, a woman's, or black's) reflection on the question*.

Why do I exist?

Is it only to do X — for, and at the bidding + threatening of Y?

Do I have independent "rights" — to do, to be, to feel, to think + believe, to change, to create, to seek and express an unconditional, uncontracted love?

[Do I have a right to obey — to allow myself to be used — for certain ^{"un"} purposes?

Does Y, or anyone, have a right to lie to me or even me?]

* or, reflection on the manipulative processes that have prevented this question from coming to awareness earlier: the toxic threats, the lies, concealments, the imposition + acceptance of subordination — the self-and-part-protection, suppression of anger, resentment, mutiny, self-respect, autonomy, recognition of reality; the conditionality of supposed "love" — and even epitaph on the weakness, cowardice, selfishness, poisoning of potentially protection, instruction, liberating thanks or "authority".

The CW "learning" reproduced the loss and the realistic economic situation (fully disclosed, about 1969-75) of my previous 15 years.

And re-evoked the ~~reality~~ — without being blinded by the false that "regression" autonomy is truth-telling, a definition of reality, was either suicidal or regicidal — though I was occurred of both!

(With some basis, in the social setting.
As for the personal — yes Mrs. Leonard said, my pious was holding the marriage together, was not my recognition of the reality of my limits, my own desires & other capabilities, my drifting from the pious & the control of the family, not the cause of the actual imminent break-up of the family, and — mostly — my father's hostility, ^{to my mother,} despair, and "fatal" ^{suicidal-} subordination to her hateful looks and unending demands which led to her death."

With my increasing independence, the family fell apart, and my mind and my decision/independence died.
